From the factory to the customer

Our furniture is manufactured using the very latest CNC machinery, producing the very highest quality components in the most efficient way. It is then transported to our finishing centre in Oxfordshire where the lacquering or painting process is carried out. We then pre-assemble as many components as possible, in order to minimise time spent installing on site. We have our own teams of immensely experienced installers, and thus control the whole process from the factory door to your chosen room.

Precision machined Oak veneered panelling

The bespoke factor

Many customers take advantage of our ability to supply a range of matching and complementary furniture. If you wish to create that fitted look, but for much less cost than that charged by fitted bedroom and study furniture specialists, we can easily achieve this by making bespoke size wardrobes or bookcases for you. As all your furniture is free-standing (except Majestic) you are then able to move it to an alternative location.

"Its construction and design is both lovely to look at and solidly built, it is in fact the best piece of furniture I own."

CS (Folkestone)

Desk locks for extra stability

Cable cut-outs

Soft-closing hinges

"For a small room like mine, this product was a great investment, I now have a comfortable bed and the best computer desk I have ever had, plus lots more room."

GW (Stroud)

CHOOSING THE PERFECT STUDYBED FOR YOU

What is the right bed size considering available space and intended use?

Although StudyBeds are free-standing (with the exception of the Majestic) and therefore can subsequently be moved, it is nonetheless very important to plan the room carefully; a StudyBed will often become the main feature of the room, and choosing the best model and optimising its location is essential.

The main points to consider

- Size and shape of room – Windows, doors, radiators
- Position of switches, sockets – dado and picture rails
- Intended use for the bed and the desk
- Your preferred finish or colour
- Any additional furniture items required

You can download our planning guide and notes in full from our website at www.studybed.co.uk

"We are delighted with the final result. If anything, it is even better than we anticipated. It fits in the room as if it were made to measure, and the improvement in workspace for the sewing machine is huge."

AB (Wokingham)

Majestic profiled side-units, made to measure

"Your fitters were keen to ensure that the install was to our liking rather than just going ahead and doing what they thought was best. I was very impressed."

SP (Sheffield)

We want you to make the best decision about the model and positioning of your StudyBed to ensure you receive maximum satisfaction and best value for money.

For this reason, if you are in any doubt about the optimum size, we are always happy to be involved in your decision-making process and would welcome receipt of a basic room plan and possibly photos to assist you in making the best choice; this is particularly important if you are intending to have additional furniture such as wardrobes or bookcases.

THE CORPORATE MARKET

Our StudyBeds are widely used in student accommodation, both in very small rooms and also for twinning purposes.

Our very first University installation was nine years ago in Portsmouth and all 26 StudyBeds are still going strong and in daily use. Several other Universities have purchased them in bulk (LSE, Lancaster, Leicester, Brighton etc) and Falmouth University, who originally had over 200 from us, found them so popular and successful, that they re-ordered a further 416 in 2016.

StudyBeds are a very popular choice in Boarding Schools, Holyport Academy, for example have purchased over 80 to date.

We include the same long-term warranty for commercial use as we do for the domestic market, such is our faith in the quality of the product.

We now have hundreds of StudyBeds installed in several University Halls and independent student accommodation throughout the UK. Our free trial system works well as it gives several people the opportunity to inspect a StudyBed close-up and also to students to use them and give feedback.

Two Tall Singles in University Halls

"StudyBeds were an obvious solution to our increased demand for accommodation, allowing us to offer an innovative and shared room option to students.

The StudyBed team offered a high level of professionalism and customer service throughout the project, starting on their first visit to site to discuss bespoke design through to the completion of the installation programme. The feedback we have received from the students has been very positive."

Payments and deposits

On placing of order we take a £500 deposit and the balance is only payable just prior to delivery.

Delivery and installation

StudyBeds of course need to arrive flat-packed in order to get them into their intended room. Self-assembly is certainly possible, but can be quite a challenging experience. We have our own dedicated team of assemblers who travel around the country delivering and installing StudyBeds. Much subsidised charges start at £160 + Vat depending on locality.
